

Hello from Nevada!

I'm so excited you stopped by to take a peek into a window of my life! I can't tell you how happy that makes me.

Adoption has always been close to my heart and I have my grandma to thank. She played a significant role in my childhood, and she, too, was adopted. I loved listening to her adoption story. My grandma's influence has shaped my understanding and appreciation for the profound connections adoption can create.

I know the ups and downs I've experienced with my adoption journey and can only imagine the wide range of emotions you might also be experiencing in yours. I want you to know that I am prepared and more than ready to share all of my love with a child, and if your child joined my life, I would consider you part of our family.

My life may be unique in the best of ways! I live with my mom and oldest niece - three generations under one roof and I hope soon there will be a fourth. Our home is filled with laughter and love, amplified by the presence of our three dogs. These furry members of our family have grown up surrounded by children and bring immense joy to our home.

As an auntie, I have been involved in my nieces' and nephews' lives, sharing vacations, amusement parks, homework, and everyday moments with them. We enjoy playing board games, cooking challenges, sports, and much more. My favorite thing to do is cook and feed my big extended family!

Adoption has always been my first choice for expanding my family. I have carefully prepared for this moment in my personal life and career. I am surrounded by a strong support system of family, friends, and coworkers who can't wait for my turn to become a mother.

I hope my words convey the sincerity of my heart. I am wholeheartedly dedicated to providing a home filled with love, support, and nurturing. I am truly humbled that you are taking the time to learn about me as you consider who will parent your precious baby. I wish you peace in your decision.

---Sincerely,

Cyndi
