

Dear Expectant Mom,

We just want to say, how amazing you are. Your selfless act means the world to us. I can't imagine all the feelings you are feeling right now. I want you to know you are so courageous, strong and so loved. Finding a family that will love and protect your child can not be easy. We admire you and your decision to do so. Our hope is that you take the time to get to know us.

We have a lot of love to give. Our families are so supportive and are so excited to meet your child and play an active part of our lives. We have always wanted to be parents, after years of infertility we realized God has a bigger and better plan for us, adoption! Adoption is something we have always talked about and now we are ready! We want to be apart of your story as well. We can not wait to love on a precious little one!

We promise that we will love and protect your child and give them the best life we possibly can. We promise to support him/her in whatever they are passionate about. We promise to give them hugs everyday and surround them in a happy and safe environment.

Thank you so much for giving us your time and considering us the honor of raising and loving your child. Know that we are praying for you and your sweet baby during this pregnancy. We pray that you will have a peace of mind in whatever decision you make.

All our love,
Brandon and Kayla
