

Hello Expectant Parent,

Thank you for taking a few moments to get to know us. You're considering a big decision, and we're sending you love and prayers in this moment.

We are a fun married couple that loves to eat and travel; sometimes we even consider destinations based on food discoveries. We have recurring dreams of many slices of pizza enjoyed in Italy and hand rolls devoured in Hawaii. When we go on road trips especially to the beach, we like to take our rescue dogs, Mickey and Frankie.

We're excited to embark on this new journey into parenthood. It's something we've talked about and dreamed about since we met fifteen years ago when Mitch invited Lorraine to be a guest on his radio show. Our first date lasted 7 hours, and we knew that we would be going on dates for the rest of our lives. Less than a year later, we got engaged. A year after that, we were married!

Epic relationships are passed down in our family. Mitch's mom and dad, Kate and John, were married for 52 years. Lorraine's mom and dad, Madeline and Bernardo, will celebrate 50 years this year. Both sets of parents were high school sweethearts. There's a lot of love and hope in this family, and that's what we would share with your child.

We both like to watch sports and stay athletic. Mitch reads a lot of sports articles and listens to podcasts, while Lorraine belongs to two book clubs. She always carries a few different books with her. Reading and outdoor activities will be a significant part of a child's life with us.

Family meals are a big deal in our house. Lorraine is a former professional chef. Mitch and the dogs get to sample her tasty, healthy, international creations daily. Cooking and spending time in the kitchen together is something we can't wait to do with a little one.

As you think about what's next, if you're looking for a happy, stable home for your child, please know we're looking to share our love and our lives with a child. And we're open to staying in touch with you if that's something you're also considering. Maybe we'll be a good fit for each other?

With warmth and appreciation,

Lorraine and Mitch